March 2nd, 1984

Dear Harold

Sorry to have been so long in replying to your request for detail on the MIT story. But here goes! (See attached memo.)

I do hope 1984 is treating you and Mrs W well. I intend to have a look at your beloved Orioles one day during the Spring training season and will give them a hearty British cheer on your behalf!

With very best wishes,

Yours.
David

JL and DW-

I have permission to let eacho of you have a copy ~~of th~~ on the understanding that you will keep it confidential.

He told me today that when the Enquirer lost interest after the ~~anniversary~~ Gary Mack phoned and asked if that was the case and if so, ~~might~~ they turn it over to the Readers Digest, which has happened.
